Dear Mr. Kline,

I was so pleased with the write-up you gave my husband Allen G. Smith. Thank you so much.

Enclosed you'll find Xerox copy of a small book that he carried in his pocket during the Bulge. I'm sorry it isn't better but guess we should remember it was before ball point pens. Pencil after 50 years is growing quite dim. I do feel that it is worth looking at. Several names and even a burial plot is identified. It may not do any good now. At some later time I may donate the book to the 106th, if it is wanted.

I really enjoyed the Cub and did send (and call) Yakupchina a copy of the enclosed papers. His name was on several of the pages.

He was very nice to talk to and I think he remembered Allen.

Thank you again -

Sincerely,

Rachel Smith

He graduated with a B.S. in Agriculture in October, 1943. He was initiated into Phi Kappa Phi, Alpha Zeta, and Gamma Sigma Delta as an undergraduate.

The author spent three years in the army from 1943 to 1946, followed by seven years as a field representative for production credit associations. In 1951, he was recalled to active duty for one year of service in Korea. From February, 1953 to February, 1965, he was engaged in farming in Central Illinois.

In February, 1965, he entered Graduate School at the University of Illinois in the Department of Agricultural Economics, where he received a M.S. in October, 1966. He continued work on a Ph.D. program at the University of Illinois and completed courses and preliminary examination requirements in July, 1967. He was initiated into Chi Gamma Iota as a graduate student.

Allen worked as an economist in ERS, Washington DC from July 1968 to Sept. 30, 1983.

We moved upon retirement to Hammond, Illinois. The week we moved he entered Fairfax Hospital at Fairfax, VA for open heart bypass surgery (4). He passed away 2 1/2 weeks later on July 9, 1986.

I now winter in Florida and also have kept an Illinois address. Thank you - Rachel Smith

(By Lt. Allen G. Smith)

We plodded slowly along the road. The mud was deep and rain was falling. On either side were the tall pines of this German forest. The rain plopped down in large drops from the trees. Single file we groped our way up to the crossroads.

My men and I were headed for church on the Western Front. There in the corner of the woods stood the chaplain, a shelter half stretched above as a canopy covering the organ and himself. Rain slipped down over his helmet and dripped in front of his face. A smile was on his face.

A semi-circle slowly pushed itself in front of the chaplain. The services began. There they were, men who have seen many days of combat. Some clean shaven, some with a couple days of beard. Some with raincoats, some without. All with their weapons slung over their shoulders. Rain was falling on all. We sang a song. The rain blotted the pages of the song book. Every man sang from the bottom of his heart. He was singing for God. He was singing for his loved ones back home. He was singing maybe for the last time. Everyone sang as if he was weighing the value of each word. Officers and men all together. You can't tell one from the others. No bars, no stripes. All buddies together.

Then came the prayer. Each man reached for his steel helmet. There, bareheaded, these men prayed. The rain dropped slowly down on those bare heads. Overhead our artillery whizzed passed. On both sides shells are landing and guns are blurting out their death-dealing food, yet not a muscle quivered. These men know when to hit the ground. They have hit it time and time before but the chaplain admonished, "Hit the ground if a shell comes our way". He knew too. He has hit the ground along with the rest of us.

~~Then came a sermon. The sermon~~

~~buddies together.~~

Then came a sermon. The sermon wasn't long because each man had work to get done. Our thoughts were on home and the chaplain admonished us to remember the Lord. Then he told us to always do our best and when we get back to be good citizens.

"God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again" was our concluding song. Then a prayer. Next Sunday some of these men won't be here. Who? God only knows, but everyone that can will be back. God will be with us until we meet again. We trust him.

War doesn't change these men. If they went to church at home, they will be there every chance they get. If they didn't go to church, they may pray in foxholes when the shells are falling, but they still don't walk a half-mile in the mud to attend services.

These men are still the same men. Tex, our first gunner, still thinks Texas is the only state in the union. Yakup, a section sergeant, still likes the coal mines of Pennsylvania. Burke, another section sergeant, says Chicago is the only place in the world, but we are all thinking the best place in the world is the United States.
